

5th Congress of Asian & the Pacific Studies 2015

9-11 September 2015, INALCO, Paris (France)

Panel on East Asian archaeology (China, Korea, Japan)

Networks, Contacts and Exchanges: The Material and Funerary Cultures of Early Polities in East Asia / Ariane Perrin (coord.)

Wednesday 9 September 2015

Session A : The Southern interaction sphere (14:00 - 15:45)

Linda Gilaizeau, Institut National des Langues et Civilisations Orientales (INALCO)
Adoption, Transformation, Reinterpretation: the Evolution of Northern Kyūshū Burial Systems during the Yayoi Period and their Connection with those of the Korean Peninsula (5th c. BC – AD 3rd c.)

Shinya Shoda, Department of Archaeology, University of York
Comparative Study of Ancient Wooden Eating Utensils Between Korea and Japan

Britta Stein, Martin-Luther-University Halle-Wittenberg
The Horse as a Medium between this World and the Next during the Kofun Period in Japan

Session B : The Northern interaction sphere (16:15 - 18:00)

Ariane Perrin, Paris Diderot University
A Study of the Mixed Mortuary Furnishings of the Han Period Tombs of the Lelang Commandery in North Korea

Akiko Nakamura, Department of Archaeology, University of York
Differences and Interactions of Roof Tile Production Technique between the Chinese Central Plain and the Korean Peninsula

Shing Mueller, University of Munich - Sonja Filip, University of Munich
Metal Chin-straps for the Deceased: Origin, Acceptance and Archaeological Interpretation

Online registration is open until 31 July 2015.

Conference website : <http://congresasie2015.sciencesconf.org/resource/page/id/17>