

Department of Anthropology (MC 027)
2102 Behavioral Sciences Building
1007 West Harrison Street
Chicago, Illinois 60607-7139

University of Illinois at Chicago, Department of Anthropology, invites applications and nominations for a tenure-track position in archaeology to begin on August 16, 2010. Appointment is expected to be at the Assistant Professor level and is pending budgetary approval.

Geographic preference will be given to scholars working in Asia, with a preference for Southeast Asia, and with theoretical and methodological specializations that complement our current strengths.

The successful applicant will join a large community of archaeologists with integrated research interests in the joint doctoral program of the Department of Anthropology (UIC) and the Field Museum.

PhD should be completed by the time of the appointment. Candidates should also demonstrate scholarly productivity, the potential for grant support, and teaching experience. For fullest consideration submit CV, cover letter describing qualifications, and the names/addresses of three references to the Search Committee Chair, Department of Anthropology, M/C 027, 1007 West Harrison Street, The University of Illinois at Chicago, Chicago Illinois 60607-7139 by November 16, 2009. UIC is Chicago's largest university and it has one of the most diverse student bodies in the nation. The University of Illinois is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.